Outdoor Service

On September 21st we will be holding our worship service outdoor at Pennyroyal Farm. Church will begin that Sunday at 10:30 am. Pennyroyal Farm is at 6694 Castle Road, Johnstown.

Hotdogs, buns, and table service for everyone will be provided by the family. Please bring a covered dish and drink to share as well as a lawn chair.

The church service will be held in the barn. Following church, we will have a potluck and hayride. Dress is casual. In the event of rain that forces us to cancel, church will be held in the sanctuary with potluck following in the fellowship hall. There is no rain date, so pray for good fall weather! There will be no Sunday School that day.

Hope to see you there!

ADULT CHOIR NEWS

A GREAT BIG THANK YOU to Bob Pardee for volunteering to direct the Adult Choir this fall. Rehearsals will begin in mid-October; stay tuned for the exact date. Our new start time is 7:45 pm, but we will end at our usual time of 8:30 pm. As always, new members are welcome (we practice in the sanctuary most Wednesday evenings through early May and generally sing during worship on 1st and 3rd Sundays). Questions? Contact Bob or Jeremy Derenberger (Music Committee Chair).

Thank you

We all have comfort in knowing our church family is here for us. We really appreciate the visits, phone calls, cards, prayers, food, flowers and gifts. Thank you for the wonderful service and luncheon. We are all going to miss him greatly, but having your arms around us will be of great comfort.

Love and Thanks,

Margaret, Tami, Brad, Madison and Maci

Johnstown Farm Heritage Day

On Saturday and Sunday, September 27th and 28th, from 1 to 5 pm, the second Johnstown Farm Heritage Days will be held at 5501 Caswell Rd, the farm and sawmill of Joe and Hazel

Almendinger. The Johnstown Historical Society is sponsoring this family friendly event. Admission and parking are free.

Last year's pies from the baking contest went so fast that there is a need for each church to try to provide at least 10 fruit or nut based pies Saturday. The pie baking contest will require that you bring your entry by 12:45 for judging.

Each day Oliver Bigelow will appear and tell his story around 1:30. At 2:00 there will be a musical concert. At 3:00 a tour of the sawmill will be followed at 4:00 of a re-telling of Billy Drago, the first known white man in this area.

Throughout the day there will be crafts to make and buy, chainsaw art of pumpkins and logs, rug hooking, weaving, carving, quilting, soap making, bowl turning, and yarding. Horse drawn rides, games, and crafts for kids are included as well as many last minute surprises.

Food available is by donation only. There will be homemade beans and cornbread, hot dogs, homemade pies, and ice cream. In the large barn there will be tables and chairs for eating and a place to view historical and antique farm equipment. Larger tractors will be displayed outside. We hope for great outdoor weather, but have plenty of indoor space to hold our activities indoors.

SERMON NOTES – 1 Timothy 6:6-10, 17-19 (NIV)

Stewardship of Treasure...

1. Money as a Trap

"People who want to get rich fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge men into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil." (vv 9-10a)

2. Avoiding/Escaping the Trap

"But godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into the world, and we can take nothing out of it." (vv 6-7)
